HUGO'S GIFT

by Morgane de Cadier & Juliette Lagrange

His mom's birthday is coming up and Hugo still doesn't have a present for her... His brothers keep making fun of him. Luckily, this sweet little boar isn't the type to be easily discouraged, so he heads into the forest to find the best gift ever. Along the way, he meets mice, lizards and squirrels who share their treasures with him. But everyone's tastes are different and Hugo doesn't find anything that would please his mom. Will he give up?.

15€ - 22,5 x 32 cm - hardback - 40 pages

Theme: mother's birthday • animals • forest

AUTHOR

After studying at the Emile Cohl School (Lyon), Morgane de Cadier decided to tell stories. She likes keeping her writing "simple, for both young and old readers." Her first picture books, illustrated by her good friend Florent Pigié, were published by HongFei Cultures, Balivernes and Frimousse. Morgane's other passion is drawing.

ILLUSTRATOR

Born in Lyon, Juliette Lagrange is a recent graduate of the Emile Cohl School. She has collaborated with various children's magazines (Toupie, Wakou) and three of her picture books will be published in early 2018.

LITTLE RAFT

by Manech & Juliette Parachini-Deny

In the vast ocean, Little Raft has plenty of fish and albatross for friends. But he hasn't made friends with any of the other ships! He is scared of anything bigger than himself. Will he "take the plunge" in the open waters? This picture book raises the question of making new friends in a poetic way.

13€ - 19 x 26 cm - hardback - 32 pages

Theme: making new friends

AUTHOR

MANECH has been working as a teacher for 15 years. He has a master's degree in children's literature and is also the author of Bibliothèque Idéale – spécial philosophie avec les enfants, published by Les Éditions MeMo. He hopes to devote himself fulltime to writing for young audiences. This is his first picture book.

ILLUSTRATOR

JULIETTE PARACHINI-DENY lives in Metz and works both as an author (she has published numerous books for children) and an illustrator. She likes mixing genres and techniques, using watercolor, line drawing and collage at the same time. Little Raft is Juliette's third work for Éditions Cépages.

THE BIG WOLF AND THE RED FAIRY by Véronique Cauchy & Rébecca Galera

Once upon a time, there was a big wolf who was a little different from the other wolves, and a red fairy, no ordinary fairy herself. She was blind and his mind was a little slower than the rest. Will they find their way? In this revised version of Little Red Riding Hood both protagonists have handicaps, but their handicaps lead to a quick friendship between them.

14€ - 22,5 x 30 cm - hardback - 40 pages
Theme: wolf • disability • friendship

AUTHOR

VÉRONIQUE CAUCHY used to work in the international trade before she discovered a strong passion for children's literature and started writing. Her first book (Une chose incroyable, exceptionnelle, extraordinaire) was published in 2007 by Circonflexe and rewarded by the Croq'livres prize in 2008. She has published many other picture books.

ILLUSTRATOR

REBECCA GALERA is passionate about art and drawing since her childhood. Illustrator for very young children, she has a strong link with childhood that is like a bridge that she can cross with her imagination. Her books for the early readers have been published by Auzou, Eveil et Découvertes and Gründ.
