ABOUT PLAY BAC

Play Bac was founded in 1985 by 3 childhood friends with a desire to change the way children learn. With this in mind, they launched the educational fans, the Incollables, in 1989 and the daily newspaper Mon Quotidien in 1995. Today they aspire to create an “ideal school” with an innovative take on how we educate our children.

PUBLISHING

Editions Play Bac publishes innovative books for the whole family, from fun and educational concepts for kids, to a range of adult gift books in original formats. Our books are tried and tested by kids and teachers, and aim to stimulate, entertain and ultimately empower children to learn.

NEWSPAPERS

Play Bac Press publishes daily and weekly newspapers for kids from kindergarten to highschool. We issue a variety of newspapers, to help children understand the world they live in, improve their English, or even get to grips with the economy. All with a teacher's stamp of approval!
